

A number of children are standing in a circle. They are evenly spaced and the 7th child is directly opposite the 18th child. How many children are there altogether?

Answer: 22; in half of the circle there are 11 children because  $18 - 7 = 11$ .
Multiply  $11 \times 2 = 22$